

Mystery Road

Durham, NC might not be the first place you think of when you think of timeless, heartfelt Americana songwriting but it is the place that Mystery Road calls home.

The band, comprising of singer/songwriter/guitarist Don de Leumont, Bassist Ira Otis Poplar-Jeffers, Drummer Marc Reeves and Don's former Shades of Winter band mate, cellist Elana Scheiner, are just four kin souls who found each other with a common thread: to make great, fun and meaningful music that will someday, hopefully, be as timeless as the music that inspires them.

Mystery Road is a group of friends, family if you will, who have joined together to offer their songs to any and everybody who will turn an open mind and ear to. There are no expectations or delusions of grandeur; just a need and a desire to open the minds and ears of people willing to hear their stories, sing along with the songs and join them on this journey. Just where is this journey going to lead? That, my friends, is a mystery.

Mystery Road is:

Don de Leumont – Lead Vocals, Acoustic Guitar
Ira Otis Poplar-Jeffers – Bass Guitar
Marc Reeves – Drums, Percussion
Elana Scheiner – Cello
